(hereinafter, "MERLIN Properties" or the "Company") has approved the Operating Rules of the Shareholders' Electronic Forum (the "Rules") to be set up on the Company's website (www.merlinproperties.com) on the occasion of the call of the Shareholders' Meeting and until the meeting is held. Hereinafter, the "Forum".

II. Rules of the Forum

The Rules regulate the setting up and provision of the Forum by Merlin Properties to the Company's shareholders and to any voluntary associations that may be created in accordance with the legislation in force, and the guarantees, terms and conditions for access and use of same by the shareholders of Merlin Properties and any voluntary associations of shareholders that may be created in accordance with the legislation in force.

The Rules supplement, with regard to the Forum, the conditions for access and use of the Merlin Properties website (www.merlinproperties.com) which will apply in full to access and use of the Forum in relation to all matters not modified by or incompatible with the provisions of these Rules.

Merlin Properties reserves the right to modify, at any time and without prior notice, the presentation, configuration, operation and contents of the Forum, the conditions for access and use of its website and these Rules, without prejudice to the provisions of the applicable legislation.

III. Acceptance of the Forum Rules

Registration as a user of the Forum ("Registered User") and access to and/or use of the Forum implies the full and unreserved acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Rules and of the conditions for access and use of the Merlin Properties website (www.merlinproperties.com) as in force from time to time.

Merlin Properties will be the Forum administrator on the terms and with the powers provided for in these Rules, and reserves the right of interpretation in the event of any doubt or discrepancy regarding use of the Forum.

IV. Purpose and aim of the Forum

The Forum is set up for the sole purpose of facilitating communication between the validly registered shareholders and voluntary associations of Merlin Properties (both natural persons and legal entities, and any voluntary associations that may be created) on the occasion of the call of the Shareholders' Meeting and until each Shareholders' Meeting is held, as the case may be.

In accordance with the legislation in force, Registered Users may submit posts for publication on the Forum which pertain solely to:

- proposals they intend to submit as a supplement to the agenda set out in the call notice for the Shareholders' Meeting;
- reasoned proposals for resolutions on items already included or to be included on the agenda set out in the call notice for the Shareholders' Meeting;
- requests for support for such proposals;
- initiatives to obtain a sufficient percentage in order to exercise a minority right provided for in the legislation in force; and

This notwithstanding, the Forum does not constitute a mechanism for online electronic conversation between Company shareholders and any voluntary associations that may be created, nor is it a space for virtual debate. The Forum also does not constitute a channel of communication between the Company and its shareholders or any associations that may be created.

Under no circumstances may any post published on the Forum be understood to constitute formal notice served on the Company for any purpose and, in particular, for the purposes of exercising any right held by the shareholders, whether individually or collectively, nor may the Forum replace the necessary requirements imposed by the law, the Bylaws, the internal regulations of the Company or any relationships existing between the Company and such shareholders for the exercise of rights or powers or the notification of any circumstance. Such rights, powers or notices must be exercised or served through the established legal, contractual or regulatory channels, and the Forum will not be a valid channel for such purposes.

Under no circumstances will the publication, in itself, of a proposed supplement to the agenda on the Forum entail the acceptance thereof or, consequently, the amendment of the agenda set out in the call notice for the Shareholders' Meeting.

In this connection, it is placed on record that, according to the provisions of article 20 of the Bylaws and articles 172 and 159 LSC, shareholders requesting the publication of a supplement to the call notice or of a reasoned proposal for a resolution on items already included or to be included on the agenda set out in the call notice for the Shareholders' Meeting must represent at least 3% of the share capital. Under no circumstances may requests for publication of a supplement to the call notice be made with respect to call notices for Special Shareholders' Meetings.

This right must be exercised within five days of the publication of the call notice by serving duly authenticated notice at the following address:
